DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1 and 2, drawn to a semiconductor body containing a semiconductor structure, classified in class 257, subclass 505.
 - II. Claims 3-17, drawn to a dynamic random access memory, classified in class 257, subclass 397.
 - III. Claims 18 and 19, drawn to method of providing electrical isolation for semiconductor structures contained in a semiconductor body, classified in class 438, subclass 218.
 - IV. Claims 20, drawn to method for making memory cells in a semiconductor body of one conductivity type, classified in class 438, subclass 439.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:

2. Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because an isolation trench could be used for field effect transistor. A dynamic random access memory could be formed using PN junction isolation.

3. Inventions I and III are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the process as claimed can be used to make a materially different product such as the electrically conductive material is doped silicide and the electrical insulator are both of titanium dioxide.

4. Inventions II and IV are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the process as claimed can be used to make a materially different product such as filling a bottom portion of the isolation trench with doped silicide that is of the one conductivity type and filling the upper portion of the isolation trench with indium oxide.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Drawings

7. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a) because they fail to show the Detailed Description for Figs. 1-13 as described in the specification. Two figures were submitted that are unrelated to the specification. Any structural detail that is essential for a proper understanding of the disclosed invention should be shown in the drawing. MPEP § 608.02(d). Correction is required.

8. Applicant is required to submit a proposed drawing correction in reply to this Office action. However, formal correction of the noted defect can be deferred until the application is allowed by the examiner.
